

Shower The People You Love

By: James Taylor

(intro) [Bm] | [C] [G]

You can [D] play the game and you can [A] act out the part,
Though you [Bm] know it wasn't [D] written for [G] you.
But tell me, [D] how can you stand there with your [A] broken heart [C#dim7] a [Bm] shamed of [D] playing the [G] fool?

[D] One thing can lead to an [A] other; it doesn't [Bm] take any [D] sacri [G] fice.
Oh, [D] father and mother, [A] sister and [C#dim7] brother, if it [Bm] feels [D] nice, [G] don't think [D/F#] twice,

Just [Em7] shower the people you [A] love with love,
[Em7] Show them the way that you [A] feel.
[Em7] Things are gonna work out [A] fine, if you [C#dim7] only [Bm] will [Adim7] do as I say,

Just [Em7] shower the people you love with [A] love, [Em7] Show them the way you [A] feel.
[Em7] Things are gonna be much [A] better if you [C#dim7] only [Bm] will. [C] [G]

You can [D] run but you can [A] not hide, [Bm] this is [D] widely [G] known.
Tell me, [D] what you plan to do with your [A] foolish pride [C#dim7]
When you're [Bm] all by your [D] self, alone. [G]

Once you [D] tell somebody the [A] way that you feel,
You can [Bm] feel it be [D] ginning to [G] ease.
I think it's [D] true what they say about the [A] squeaky wheel [C#dim7]
[Bm] Always [D] getting the [G] grease. [D/F#]

Better to [Em7] shower the people you [A] love with love,
[Em7] Show them the way that you [A] feel.
[Em7] Things are gonna be just [A] fine if you [C#dim7] only [Bm] will [Adim7] What I'd like to do to you is just [Em7] Shower the people you [A] love with love,
[Em7] Show them the way that you [A] feel.
[Em7] Things are gonna be much [A] better if you [C#dim7] only [Bm] will. [C] [G]

Repeat – Back to (*) - or - End on [D]
